dig In!

Join Advocates for Health in Action and Marbles Kids Museum at DIG IN:

Weaving Edible Landscapes – Community Gardens and Urban Ag – into the Fabric of Our Community

Explore urban agriculture, community gardens, edible gardens in schools and child care settings, and family garden fun at Dig In! Jay Walljasper, author of The Great Neighborhood Book, will open with a keynote on how expanding local food options helps make our communities stronger, happier and more prosperous places for everyone! Learn from his expertise on community design and placemaking.

8 am – 1 pm	Dig In Keynote and Workshops
11 am – 2 pm	Dig In Booths, Garden Build, Garden Play
2 – 3:30 pm	Service/Learning at Local Urban Farms & Gardens (optional)
